OUT ON THE LIMB

with George Vierhus

FIRE-CHASING is an occupational hazard that those of us in the newspaper profession take in stride. We indulge in it as sort of a "fringe benefit" that sometimes relieves the daily grind.

Generally speaking, it makes no difference who is in the office at the time the siren sounds off. We get into our starting blocks and away we go.

Last week, for example, Dr. Jack Rand, superintendent of the Temple City Schools, was visiting us when the fire engines rolled down Dillon.

Jack volunteered to chauffeur us to the fire (it was only two blocks away), so we climbed in with Joe Anello and off we went.

We thought it was apropos that Dr. Rand was driving a red Oldsmobile station wagon. It was right in keeping with the rest of the vehicles that answered the alarm.

When we visit Temple City again, we doubt that Jack can dig up as an appropriate a ceremony for us. That's asking pretty much.

We don't drive a red station wagon. So fires are out.

IF FINALLY HAPPENED DEPARTMENT: We thoroughly enjoyed, in a sort of sadistic way, reading recently about a group of attorneys who became so involved in the complex legal structure they had built with their own little hands that they had to call on the court to come to their aid.

It seems the attorneys formed their own partnership with a number of entangling alliances. But they got so confused with the legal complexities of their own doing that they had to ask the judge to unravel the legalistic cobweb they had woven.

We knew it would happen sooner or later. That makes them eligible for our club.

We often get confused over the verbose legal documents which we are forced to attempt to translate on occasion.

To mix metaphors and professions, this sort of gives the lawyers a taste of their own medicine.

SPEAKING OF PROFESSIONS (we were, weren't we?) we enjoyed meeting the Rev. Don Stram, the new pastor of First Christian Church of Campbell.

In a recent issue we ran the picture of the Rev. Stram and the story of his assignment to Campbell.

Grace Hebbard, our women's editor, handled the story. We didn't meet the young minister until he came into the office to pick up the negative of the picture we had run. He said it was his.

We painstakingly explained to him that he had made a mistake. You see, we advised, we did not have the Council 'unfreezes' area but 'thaw' takes a spell

Campbell's city council by a 3-2 vote Monday night in a marathon session ending after midnight lifted the unique zoning and building permit "freeze" on the substandard (Railway-Dillon-Gilman) area. The moratorium had been in effect since June 8.

But the "thawing" of the "frozen" area proved to be a complicated and lengthy process. The first motion to lift the freeze and retain the same M-1-S zoning that now exists which was made by Councilman Ralph Doetsch failed for want of a second.

But later when Doetsch made same motion, it was seconded by Councilman Bill Smeed and carried 3-2. Mayor Charles Rose voted for it with Councilmen Bob McElroy and Ed Rogers opposing it.

The motion was based on the planning commission's recommendation. The planners met just prior to the council meeting. All four members present voted to recommend the lifting of the freeze and to continue the condemnation program. The planners also suggested that action should be taken immediately. They wanted more teeth in the "S" approval clause of the zoning to upgrade the type of buildings that could be built in the area. They also agreed that more study should be given the area in an endeavor to find even better zoning for it than M-1.

Present for the commission meeting were Chairman Thayer Lyons and Commissioners Homer Hyde, Frank Klein and Harry Lee.

The motion to lift the freeze and retain the present zoning of M-1-S carried the further stipulation that action should be taken immediately to put more teeth in the zoning by amending the present ordinance. The city staff was directed to come up with the "teeth" by the August 4 meeting. It was not anticipated that any building permit would be submitted before the new teeth were put in.

The action of the council came after a lengthy discussion on all aspects of the situation dating back to when the area was zoned originally in 1955 for M-1-S as an "upgrading" measure. During the years the area has not

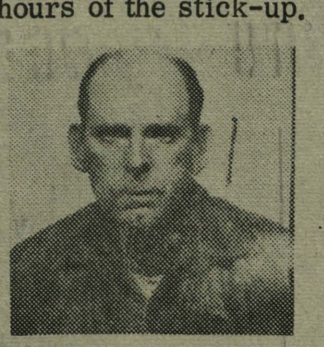
Cops nab suspect in bank robbery

Campbell branch of Bank of America was robbed of $2,300 late Friday afternoon and a 41-year old suspect, Leland Mitchell Cronin, was arrested by Federal officers within hours of the stick-up.



LELAND M. CRONIN

According to Campbell police, Cronin was traced through a vehicle registration shortly after Oran Slaght, assistant bank manager, copied down the license number of the bandit's getaway car.

The robbery occurred at approximately 5:15 p.m. on Friday. The suspect approached Mrs. Ruth Johnson, 487 April Way, at her teller's window and presented a note demanding money across the counter. He also indicated he was carrying a gun. The note read "This is a stick-up. There is a gun pointed at you. Do as I say and nobody will get hurt."

Then he offered her a small brown bag as a container for the money. Mrs. Johnson complied, but reported the robbery as soon as the bandit walked out the door. According to Oran Slaght who ran out to get the license number of the 1955 green Plymouth the suspect was driving, the bandit headed north on Winchester.

He was followed for a short while by Steve Werthman, 201 E. Campbell Ave., but was lost near Latimer as he attempted to attract the attention of a responding Campbell Police unit. Sgt. L. R. Kelly of the Campbell Police Department, who received the first call from bank manager Ted Regas, said the suspect

Three-acre "BONANZA"

Construction starts on unique home center

Groundbreaking ceremonies took place Monday for the "Bonanza Home Center" which is located adjacent to the Hamilton Plaza Center on Bascom. The center will be a unique department store catering to the do-it-yourself trade. Grand opening is scheduled for October.

Located on three acres, the operation will consist of a 30,000 square foot building and a 10,000 square foot outdoor display section. More than 1000 cars can be accommodated in the parking areas.

JERRY CALLNER

JEROME KRITZER

Rated as the first of its kind in California, the Bonanza Home Center is organized as a corporation. Jerry Callner, president, and Jerome Kritzer, executive vice president, will be active in the firm with Julius Callner, secretary, and Bernard Kritzer, director, as consultants.

NEW TO STATE

Although the concept of the home center planned for Campbell is entirely new for California, Callner, the company president, conducted the same type of store in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. His firm was known as Capitol Lumber and Hardware and was one of the largest retail operations in Wisconsin.

Callner, who with his wife and three children reside at 115 McBain Court, Campbell, has been in this area for the past 12 months.

Kritzer, the executive vice-president, up to this month has been general manager of GEM in San Jose since that store opened in 1961. With his wife and three children he resides at 1822 Comstock, San Jose.

Julius Callner, the secretary of the organization who will also act as a consultant, is the father of Jerry Callner. Callner, senior, was one of the founders of the retail concept in building materials now so popular in the midwest.

Bernard Kritzer, a director in the firm and who will also serve as a consultant, is a brother of Jerome, the executive vice-president. Bernard is considered to be the founder of the discount store operation in California and established ABC in Santa Ana. He was executive vice-president of GEM international for four years. He is now with Dorn Appliance in southern California.

BUILDING

The building which will house Bonanza Home Center, will be of the tilt-up construction and is estimated to cost $250,000. The western motif will be carried out in the design. It was designated by George Kern, A.I.A. of Oakland and is being constructed by Midstate

Property line appeal loses before council

A Planning Commission ruling granting a variance to Mrs. Connie Regas to allow a commercial structure at 100 W. Rincon, to be built on the property line was upheld by the City Council Monday night.

The variance had been granted after construction of the building had been started. Because it was next to a single-family residence a six-foot sideyard setback is required by city ordinance. Through a series of oversights, the plans for the building had been approved by the city without including the setback requirement.

Mrs. Eugenia Papagni, of 118 W. Rincon, who resides next door to the new building, protested that her property had been damaged by the construction. She objected to the variance being granted.

JOHN THORNE

ELLIOT WAX

After the planners had granted the variance, Mrs. Papagni, with her attorney Elliot Wax, appealed to the council.

Wax told the council that the planners had exceeded their authority and there was insufficient hardship shown by Mrs. Regas as required by law.

He also alleged that the granting of the variance indicated that special privilege was being shown and that Mrs. Regas deliberately violated the conditions set by the city in continuing construction in the period allowed for appeal.

Attorney John Thorne represented Mrs. Regas at the appeal hearing. He denied that Mrs. Regas had deliberately violated the code and claimed that Mrs. Regas was anxious to amicably settle the neighborhood problem.

The council after listening to the lengthy arguments of both attorneys, upheld the Planning Commission action by a unanimous vote. Council members suggested that they felt it was a private matter to be settled by the two parties.

An ill-timed request

The Chamber of Commerce directors last week went on record opposed to the request of an isolated group of residents within the West Valley Junior College District asking for a new study to be made on whether the district should continue to exist.

We commend the C. of C. directors for this step. We are heartily in accord with their thinking.

Specifically the group of residents, mostly from the fringe area near Saratoga, requested "a comprehensive study of the West Valley Junior College District to determine the necessity of that Junior College's continued existence, and to establish a positive plan for consolidating the West Valley Junior College District with the adjoining districts of San Jose Junior College and Foothill Junior College."

Actually there would not be anything wrong with the request of the 500 people, if the same study they have requested had not been done before. In our opinion this would be a needless duplication of efforts and we see no need for such a study at this time.

The request was made to the Santa Clara County Committee on School District Organization and pursuant to the requirements of the Education Code, a public hearing must be held on the request.

This hearing has been scheduled for Thursday, July 23, at 8 p.m. It will be held at the Campbell High School.

We sincerely hope that the committee at the hearing will determine that no further study is necessary.

As we said, we have gone through all this before. But there are some other points that should be considered that, in our opinion, make the need for a restudy even more impractical at this time.

For example, a restudy would indicate a lack of confidence in the voters of the district who, on January 8, 1963, by a substantial majority voted to create the district. They further demonstrated their belief in the district at the bond election on March 10, 1964, when 30 per cent more voted in support of the bonds than voted for its creation a year earlier.

The district has, and will continue to have, adequate financial basis with which to provide a quality program with which to meet the higher education needs (youth and adults) of the people in the area.

The Junior College District should be given a fair chance to become established. Actually, there is no provision in the law for the dissolution of a junior college district as requested by the study petition. Even unified school districts can't be dissolved before three years of operation. West Valley Junior College District has been in operation for only one year.

The same people who are asking for the restudy are also the ones who opposed the bond issue. Their request at this time might conceivably be considered a sort of a smoke screen to confuse the public and make it double difficult to provide necessary facilities for the new junior college in the future.

We also think that a study of the district's organization just at the time it is starting its first classes would serve as a deterrent to both faculty and student morale which is so essential to providing high quality educational programs.

But we reiterate, the main reason we oppose the restudy at this time is that it would be a costly and needless duplication of the exhaustive studies made by the Santa Clara County Committee in 1961 and 1962. These studies resulted in the recommendation that the West Valley Junior College be established.

We are convinced that the district cannot afford the extra expense or the time that a restudy would cost.

We see no earthly need for a new study that would be an outright duplication and would probably end with the same recommendation that was made previously.

Duplication of efforts in the educational field today is exactly what we don't need, thank you.

We sincerely hope the county committee will view the ill-timed request in the same light next Thursday, July 23, at Campbell High School.

facilities to develop negatives of pictures. We could only use the glossy photos. These, in turn, we "shoot" for the negatives for our offset production, an entirely different operation than that of the ordinary negative that the average photographer talks about.

So he must have brought in the picture and not the negative, we told him, because we had published the picture and not the negative, we told him, because we had published the picture.

After we had finished, the Rev. Stram just as carefully explained that he very definitely knew what he was talking about. And we didn't.

It turned out that the pastor happens to be an offset printing expert as well as a minister.

He HAD brought in a negative. And it was an offset negative that we could use.

So it goes. You can't tell the players without a program.

You win a few and lose a few.

SOME CITY EMPLOYEES were upset becuase of the story we ran last week on the payroll of city personnel. We listed the salaries of most of the 80 persons employed by the city.

Some didn't think it was kosher to list the size of their paychecks publicly. What a person makes per month should be his own private business, they claimed.

Why should public employees be singled out, they wanted to know, when people in private enterprise can keep their salaries to themselves?

There is a difference, in our book. City employees are paid from public funds and the public, therefore, should have a right to know what they are paying their help.

That's the penalty (and we use the term loosely) for being on a governmental payroll.

Someone wanted to know how we would feel if our own salary had been listed similarly in public print. There is a difference. Our paycheck comes from our own private business. Still we would have no qualms about having it publicized.

We feel we earn it. It really would not bother us, if others knew the size (or lack of same) of our own paycheck.

Railroad clubs sponsor trip to Santa Cruz

Railroad clubs and historical societies in the Bay Area will revive the old-fashioned railroad picnic Sunday, July 19, when they jointly sponsor the annual Big Trees Picnic Train to Henry Cowell Redwoods State Park near Santa Cruz.

The special Southern Pacific train leaves Jack London Square, Oakland, at 8:30 AM, stopping at Fruitvale and San Jose. San Francisco and Peninsula passengers take S.P. Local No. 112 and transfer to the special at San Jose. The special will then make a direct run to the Park, arriving shortly before lunchtime.

Special picnic tables in a reserved area of the Park will be provided for the group. After lunch, there will be time for a stroll through the Redwoods and a ride on the steam-powered trains of the Roaring Camp and Big Trees Narrow-Gauge Railroad. This scenic line twists and turns its way through virgin forests and up seven percent grades to the railhead at Deer Valley, a scenic round trip of not less than three miles.

The S.P. special will leave the Park at 4:00 PM and will make a 1-1/2 hour dinner stop at the Boardwalk in Santa Cruz. At 6:00 PM the special will leave the Boardwalk for a direct return to the Bay Area, arriving in Oakland at 9:30, and in San Francisco at 9:45. Fares from San Francisco and Oakland, including rail transportation, Park admission and narrow-gauge train ride are $8.50 for adults; $5.00 for children 5-11 years of age. Children under 5 are free. For further information, write Bay Area Electric Railroad Ass'n., 314 Fifteenth St., Oakland. Tickets and information are available also at Southern Pacific ticket offices in San Francisco, Oakland, Berkeley, Burlingame, Redwood City, Palo Alto and San Jose.

what's doing?

We all like to reminisce about "the good old days." But, it's easy to overlook how much cranking it took to get those good old days started. I mean, we cranked the car, the clothes wringer, the gramophone, and the telephone. Not so today. Take the telephone, for instance: Now you can call almost anywhere in the United States with just the spin of a dial. And it costs less, too. Back in 1920 a 3-minute daytime coast-to-coast call cost $16.50. Today the cost is only $2.25, plus tax, for the same station-to-station call. At night it's even less. Yes, times change. And so does the telephone, because telephone people are constantly improving it and the service it brings.

12,000 tax bills—that's really a mailbox full! And as California's largest property taxpayer, Pacific Telephone is paying that many property tax bills this year. The total cost: $106,000,000.

Have you ever noticed this building on Winchester Blvd. in Santa Clara?

This is your Telephone Company Business Office. This building was constructed in 1963 to serve the subscribers in Santa Clara, Cupertino, Saratoga, West San Jose, and Campbell. If at any time we can assist you please call us at 288-9000. We'll be happy to serve you.

HOW NOT TO BE CHARGED FOR DIALING A WRONG NUMBER OUT OF TOWN.

Here's something that's important to know about Direct Distance Dialing service: If you reach a wrong number, just ask the person who answers for the name of his city. Then hang up and dial the operator and tell her. She'll see that you're not charged for the call.

What the Council did–

Although the City Council spent more than three hours Monday night on just two items on their heavy agenda, in a series of rapid-fire actions, at the tail end of 4 1/2 hour session, the Council took these eventful steps.

The Council:

1. AWARDED the contract for improvement of Hamilton Ave. just west of Harrison to Peterson Bros. for $3,473.32.
2. DIRECTED the public works director to call for bids for the installation of culvert and street improvements at Smith Creek at Elam Ave. estimated to cost approximately $15,000.
3. ACCEPTED two tracts (Wilton-Nido Drive and Queens Court and Kings Court at Latimer and Llewellyn) after the public works director reported that all improvements had been put in.
4. APPROVED final tract map for Mary Court.
5. APPROVED two actions for two local improvement districts (L.I.D. No. 11, Michael Drive intention to construct and L.I.D. No. 4, engineering contract and notice of completion).
6. APPROVED the expenditure of $305 to improve sidewalks adjacent to city property on N. First St., S. Third St., across alley ways on S. First and on Everett.
7. ACCEPTED the $7,500 new comfort station at Campbell Park, withholding 10 per cent pending the completion of some minor hardware items yet to be installed.
8. LEARNED from City Manager Bob Stephens that the amount in the city's unallocated reserves had exceeded their expectations at the close of the fiscal year.
9. DISCUSSED and accepted tentatively the proposed boundary agreement between San Jose and Campbell that had been drafted by representatives of the staffs from both cities.
10. DECIDED not to accept at this time the proposal that would allow a percolation pond of the Santa Clara County Water Conservation District to be installed in the city-owned park on Rincon Ave. Tied in with the proposal was the "sliver" along the San Tomas Expressway that would go to the city.
11. ADOPTED three ordinances (1. text amendments for P-D zoning; 2. zone change approval for the Kirkorian property; 3. zone change for Aderholt property.
12. GAVE FIRST READING to two other ordinances... one for the zone change on Hamilton for the Gratton-Chez development that resulted from the compromise after a referendum had been asked; and the other for changes in text amendments relating to procedures in obtaining variances.

Police nab

(Continued from page 1) was captured at 11:15 p.m. the same evening by F.B.I. agents in an apartment at 829 So. Third St., San Jose.

Special Agent in charge of the San Francisco office, Curtis O. Lynum, said that Cronin "offered resistance and attempted to draw a .22 pistol concealed on his person."

Cronin dropped a large amount of money, which together with other money found in his room, totaled $2,292, FBI reported.

Commissioner Gerald B. Hansen ordered the suspect held in County Jail on $20,000 bail. Cronin had no local police record.

This was the second bank robbery in Campbell's history, the previous one occurring more than 30 years ago.

MORE ABOUT

Bonanza, starts

Construction Co. of San Francisco.

The developer of the property is Hagstrom's Properties of Oakland.

According to Callner, this do-it-yourself department store that will be combined with personal services will offer more than 25,000 items for the do-it-yourself enthusiast.

These include: complete building materials, hardware, electrical and plumbing supplies, unfinished furniture, housewares, hobby and art supplies, sporting goods, automotive parts and service, tool and equipment rental, garden and nursery supplies, paint and many other departments.

The store will cater primarily to the individual home owner and a special feature will be the "check-out" technique that will be used.

There will be specialists on duty throughout the retail area to assist the customers in various fields.

It is also planned to hold demonstrations and even conduct "schools" in various phases of do-it-yourself activities.

The time table calls for the store to be in full operation by late fall. The grand opening is tentatively slated for early in October.

Letters to the Editor

URGES AID

Editor
The Campbell Press
Campbell, California
Dear Sir:

The Mississippi crisis has become, in the understanding of millions of Americans, the testing ground of everything that this Nation holds to be just and good and true. Nearly a million Mississippi Negroes are among the world's most oppressed people: but they are receiving a clear message of hope and new dignity from the young citizens who have gone to their State as teachers and freedom workers this Summer.

The Mississippi Freedom Project is, however, jeopardized by a recent development: tons of vital equipment, stockpiled on the West coast, are waiting to be shipped to the Freedom Schools --but funds have run out.

I know that many of your readers will want to help bring an end to the desperate plight of Mississippi Negroes, and they can do so by sending their own freedom message through a gift of money. No amount is too small: a dollar will send twenty pounds of textbooks. The local address for funds is FREEDOM PROJECT, P.O. BOX 778, Saratoga, Calif.

It is through gifts of this kind that honest Americans can show their real faith in American principles, and I know that many will show that they do care.

Cordially,
ALFRED D. CARSON

ON CAPITOL HILL

with "Charlie" Gubser

The House of Representatives will soon consider the Johnson Administration's Poverty Bill which would involve an expenditure of $962.5 million the first year. By its third year of operation expenditures could go as high as $5 billion per year.

Many people have gotten the impression that America, up until this year, has neglected its poor. This erroneous impression was largely caused by the statements of Administration spokesmen who have overestimated the amount of real poverty in this country and underestimated the efforts this country has taken over the years to reduce and eliminate poverty.

Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, Anthony Celebrezze, in testimony before the House Education and Labor Committee this year emphasized that there are 42 existing Federal programs directed at poverty which involve annual Federal expenditures of $31.8 billion.

Government expenditures in the already existing "war on poverty" at all levels of government -- local, state and national -- amount to a total of $66.5 billion a year, much more than the national government spends in our entire defense effort. When you add to this the $33.5 billion spent on poverty from private sources, you get a total of $100 billion per year spent on poverty. In other words, we as a nation are spending as much on the poverty problem alone as the federal government spends in a year for all its activities.

Looking at some of the provisions in the Poverty Bill, Title I ($412.5 Million) would create a Job Corps for 40,000 young men and women between the ages of 16 and 22, a Work Training Program in which the Federal Government will pay 90% of the cost of providing "useful work experience opportunities" for unemployed young men and women and a Work Study Program in which the Federal Government will pay 90% of the wages of college students in part-time employment. Constructive amendments to coordinate these programs with Vocational Education, Manpower Retraining and a multiplicity of other existing programs were all rejected. Actually, recent vocational and manpower changes already written into law earlier this year have not even been put into effect yet.

Title IV would permit granting of small business loans, which can already be made by the Small Business Administration. It merely bypasses and overlaps existing agencies and programs.

Although the Poverty Bill has an attractive label, designed to force politicians to vote for it in an election year, in its present form it is not a good piece of legislation. It superimposes lavish and wasteful schemes on hard, work-a-day programs that have been making incredible progress in combating poverty. As a typical example, the estimated cost per enrollee of the Job Corps is $4700 a year. Yet after six months in the woods, most "graduates" would have no greater job skills to equip them for urban life than when they enrolled. Residential training schools, special remedial education, on-the-job training and countless other programs, administered by experienced personnel, are already available under Manpower and Vocational laws, at far less cost per youngster. Expansion of these programs should have first priority.

There will be prizes and refreshments and the public is invited.

West Valley Symphony plans summer concert

The West Valley Symphony, under its conductor Raynold Allvin, will present its summer concert in conjunction with the Blossom Hill Oratorio Chorus and the choir of the Federated Church of Saratoga. This final concert of the season will be presented in St. Andrews Episcopal Church, 13601 Saratoga Ave. on Friday, July 17, at 8:15 p.m.

The chorus assisted by soloists Bonnie French, alto, Hans Koehler, tenor, and Sam Espeseth, bass, will join the orchestra in a presentation of the Zoltan Kodaly Missa Brevis.

The Kodaly, actually written during the closing days of World War II, reflects the terrible conflict in the contemporary Hungarian harmonic idiom and uses the complete resources of a full symphony orchestra, chorus, soloists and women's trio.

The West Valley Symphony was found in January of this year and is composed of amateur musicians in the area. The Blossom Hill Oratorio Chorus began rehearsal last September under its director Dave Wilson. Both organizations will resume activities in the fall with auditions and both have scheduled a full concert season. The public is invited to attend.

SOCIAL SECURITY

Questions and Answers

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH, EDUCATION, AND WELFARE
SOCIAL SECURITY ADMINISTRATION

By Gladstone A. Boquist
Field Representative

Field Representative

Q.-I have been receiving disability payments for the past three years. Next month I will be 65. Will my payments be increased?

A.-No. The amount of the disability payment is the same as the old-age insurance benefit.

Q.-I am 65 and will retire in a few months. I have been supporting my mother for the past five years. Will any social security benefits be payable to her?

A.-Not now. There is no provision for benefits to the dependent parent of a living wage earner. In the event of your death, however, a parent's benefit may be payable to her if her dependency can be established.

Q.-I received a letter the other day saying I have to make a social security report of my babysitter's wages if I pay her at least $50 cash in a calendar quarter. I hire this babysitter one night a week and pay her $4 each time she sits. Will I have to report the money I pay her?

A.-If she works for you every week of the quarter, her wages would total $52. The law requires that you report these wages.

Q.-I hired a part-time maid last month and pay her $10 a week. I don't want to be bothered with making a report of her wages every three months. Will it be all right if I just make one report for the year?

A.-No. Your report must be made by the end of the month following each calendar quarter. A person must have a certain number of quarters of work to receive social security payments. This is why the report must be made each quarter. If you do not file your report on time, you will have to pay interest and a penalty for late filing.

School district sells 3-acre plot

Trustees of the Campbell elementary district at their annual organization meeting agreed to sell 3.569 acres for $79,800 for the San Tomas Expressway. The property is part of the Parkway School site.

The board also accepted the low bid of Bothelia and Perez of $9,850 for the moving of 12 portable classrooms (eight from San Tomas and four from Monroe). Two of the portables will go to Rolling Hills School, six to Hazelwood, one to Rosemary and three to Campbell Elementary (formerly Cherry Lane).

At the organization session Howard Guilbert was named president, and William Parton was elected clerk. The board selected Mrs. Eleanor Graham-Armstrong, who has been acting president since the resignation of Gregor D. MacGregor in March 13, as voting member of the board to elect members of the County Committee on School District Organization.

At the next board meeting, August 6, the public hearing on the 1964-65 budget will be held at 7 p.m. William C. Henley, superintendent, has estimated that it will be possible to cut the general purpose tax rate by six to eight cents from the present $2.268 per $100 assessed valuation because of the increase in property valuation in the district.

The budget totals $5,840,237 and will be supplemented by approximately $135,000 cafeteria payroll funds that are being processed through the general fund for the first time.

Planners okay college parking lot but without any buildings

West Valley Junior College on Monday night received the blessing of the Planning Commission for the 2 1/2 acre parking area that the college will lease from Charles Rose at Winchester and Latimer.

The planners firmly agreed that the approval was strictly for parking and for school purposes only.

But if the college planned to use the seven buildings which have been rated substandard by city inspections, it might be a different story.

James Hardy, JC business manager, appealed to the planners that the college was short of finances. Using the buildings would be a big help in the first year of operation, he said.

The planners indicated, however, that based on the building inspector's and fire marshal's reports, it would be unfair to allow the use of the buildings.

Even Charles Rose's statement that he would demolish the buildings at his own expense when the lease with the college expired did not sway the commission.

Hardy conceded that it was more important to get the parking lot okayed than to battle for blighted buildings and the commission then approved the use permit for the parking lot... But no buildings.

Both the fire marshal's and building inspector's reports revealed the contemplated storage use of the buildings was a more hazardous use than residential.

The way was left open for the college to apply for another use permit at a later date for the use of the buildings.

But the road to that goal seemed somewhat rocky, in face of the reports submitted to the planners and the commissioners' attitude on Monday.

Guilbert heads school board

Howard Guilbert, for seven years a member of the elementary school board and who served as president in 1959-60, last Thursday was elected president of the board of trustees for 1964-65 of the Campbell Union (elementary) District.

HOWARD GUILBERT

The new president was originally appointed to the board in December, 1957, to fill the unexpired term of Ed A. Merrill. He was later re-elected twice.

Guilbert is a bookkeeper and attendance clerk in the business office at Live Oak Union High School District in Morgan Hill, where he has worked since July 1, 1961. During the previous 23 years he worked in the electrical supply field in his family business in San Jose.

He lives with his wife Lillian at 110 West Latimer, Campbell. Their sons Norman, Walter and Douglas have been educated in Campbell schools.

CENTER OF ATTENTION—The Cow Palace in San Francisco, the scene of the 1964 Republican convention, has been in the spotlight of the world. Wiring the big convention hall for the convention was a gigantic job for Pacific Telephone. Planning for it began over a year ago and the rush to put in all the telephones, teletypewriters and TV transmission gear got under way early this spring. The temporary building at the lower right houses microwave equipment for transmitting TV signals.

OFF TO VALLEY FORGE--Eagle Scout Harold Malone, son of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Malone, 1021 Hedegard, points on the high spots on the map where he will visit this summer. Harold, a member of Boy Scout Troop 309, sponsored by the Congregational Church, is the only Campbell member of special Jamboree Troop 62, of the Santa Clara County Council that will take part in the jamboree that will be held in Valley Forge, Pa. He left Thursday on the special Jamboree train that will stop in Chicago, Washington, D.C. and New York, where the scouts will tour the fair. They will be gone 20 days, returning on July 29.

been improved materially, it was pointed out.

Property owners in the area had met recently to discuss their problems. They agreed that M-1-S zoning was the best for them. Many also agreed because of the small size of their lots to offer their properties jointly. They also felt that the condemnation program of the city had not been fair unless all substandard structures were given the same treatment.

Council members indicated that they were aware of the hardships in some cases that the condemnation had brought about but felt that it was imperative to improve the area as a whole for the benefit of the entire city.

Councilman Bob McElroy, however, aroused the ire of some in the audience when it was mentioned that some people had been put in the street because of the condemnation program. This could not be helped, the councilman explained, and maybe some of those people deserved being put in the street because of the condition of their homes.

More than 1700 students are taking advantage of summer classes of the Campbell Union High School District, according to District Superintendent Laurance J. Hill.

Two summer schools are in progress, one at Leigh High School and one at Blackford High School, with enrollments of 712 and 1028 respectively.

The summer school program, Hill explains, has four objectives: (1) to enable students to take courses they have been unable to include in their regular program (2) to give students an opportunity to remove failures or low grades by repeating courses, (3) to give students an opportunity to make up credits required for graduation, and (4) to provide students with opportunities to use vacation time wisely.

The 1964 summer sessions began June 22 and continue for seven weeks to August 7. By attending class for four hours each day a student can earn one year's credit for the subject studied. One semester's credit can be earned by attendance every day for two hours.

Classes are scheduled 8 to 10 a.m. and 10:10 a.m. to 12:10 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Classes are available in nine subject fields: Art, English, Mathematics, Science, Social Studies, Foreign Languages, Industrial Arts, Business and Driver Education.

Jay Russell is principal and Beryl Fields is dean of the Blackford High School summer session, which has a faculty of 36 teachers. Neil Fearn is principal and Calvin Wilson is dean of the Leigh High School summer session, which has a faculty of 28 teachers.

CHURCH DELEGATES HOLD CONFERENCE

Some 1,700 delegates from five western states attended a religious training congress sponsored by the Seventh Day Adventist Church at Soquel, Calif. recently.

Four training sessions were held each day for the delegates to study the latest techniques of face-to-face explaining of the Christian message to persons throughout local communities.
